

I do not wish for banks or credit card agencies to be able to call my home. I have a small child and find it very annoying to be interrupted when she is sleeping or eating to answer the phone and be offered a loan or credit line that I do not want and did not ask for. Please do not allow these banks to access my phone number. I would rather choose my own bank and do my own research.